At the rally, over a thousand peaceful people gathered at the Capitol for what they considered to be a decriminalization rally. Due to a police crackdown, the rally turned into a violent rally. According to a recent filing in the US District Court of the Northern District of Texas, the city of Austin is demanding the removal of an ACLU attorney, Ronald Eloisa, who was at the rally. Here is the lawsuit. It's my hope that the city will be forced to release these tapes of the mass arrest of innocent protesters. Please help us in releasing these tapes. Here is the lawsuit: Decriminalization Rally Tape: Key points: The City of Austin has requested $50,000 in legal fees The City of Austin has requested $50,000 in legal fees Ronald Eloisa, the ACLU attorney who was at the rally, is accused of "obstructing the police" Ronald Eloisa, the ACLU attorney who was at the rally, is accused of "obstructing the police" The city has charged $30,000 in legal fees The city of Austin has charged $30,000 in legal fees Their filing is based on Eloisa's "obstruction of the police" Their filing is based on Eloisa's "obstruction of the police" The City of Austin has a track record of cutting deals with the police The City of Austin has a track record of cutting deals with the police The City of Austin insisted on the possibility of impunity for the police The City of Austin insisted on the possibility of impunity for the police The ACLU says the charges against Eloisa are "outrageous" The ACLU says the charges against Eloisa are "outrageous" Four people have been charged with felonies for attending the rally Pendent charges against four people include obstruction of the police, harassment, and disorderly conduct.
